

Privacy policy for NeuroModulationTechnique.com

E-mail privacy

NeuroModulationTechnique.com has created this privacy policy in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to your privacy.

Privacy guarantee #1: If you have given us your e-mail address or any other personal information we will NEVER sell, rent or otherwise share it with any advertiser or third party.

General privacy information

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our Web site. However, the nature of the Internet prevents us from personally identifying your name, e-mail or job title simply by your IP address. This Web site may use cookies to store preference information or deliver content that may be relevant to the user's search. We do not link cookies to anything personally identifiable. We cannot be responsible for the privacy practices or the content of other Web sites that we link to.

Website subscription and data collection

As part of our subscription sign-up process, we collect contact information such as mailing address, phone number and e-mail. We may use this information to contact subscribers about their subscription (e.g., to renew online). E-mail addresses are never sold, rented or shared with third parties.

Security

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control.
